BACKGROUND

The foundations of higher education studies in Mitrovica were laid with the opening of the Technical High School in 1961. In 1970, within the Technical Faculty, the branches of Mining, Technology and Metallurgy were opened, initially in Mitrovica, school year 1970/71, to then continue in Pristina until the establishment of the Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy in Mitrovica in 1974. The Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy in Mitrovica was established by the Law on the establishment of the Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy by the Assembly of Kosovo on July 22, 1974. In the year of establishment, studies were organized in the following branches: Minerals, Technology and Metallurgy, while in the school year 1980/81, the branch of Geology was also opened. The establishment of the Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy was of great importance for all of Kosovo. It was the Mining and Metallurgical Combine "Trepça" that had a great need for engineering staff coming out of the Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy. The cadres from the Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy and the High Technical School have taken a well-deserved place in the Electric Power Plant of Kosovo, and the entire industry and economy of Kosovo. The students who studied at the Faculty of Mining and Metallurgy and the High Technical School were from all parts of Kosovo, I take into account that these branches were studied only in Mitrovica. A large number of students also came from other Albanian provinces, from Macedonia and Presheva, Bujanoc and Medveja and Montenegro. Many students - foreign citizens enrolled and graduated in this faculty, especially from the Middle East. On the basis of these faculties and based on the over 60-year tradition of higher education in Mitrovica, the Government of the Republic of Kosovo on 06. 03. 2013 established the Public University of Mitrovica, while the Assembly of Kosovo on 31 May 2013 ratified the decision. Based on the Temporary Statute, approved by the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology, six faculties operate within the University of Mitrovica "Isa Boletini" (UIBM): Faculty of Geosciences (FGJT), Faculty of Food Technology (FTU), Faculty of Mechanical and Computer Engineering (FIMK), Faculty of Law (FJ), Faculty of Economics (FE) and Faculty of Education (FE).

Rector's speech

Prof. Dr. Alush Musaj

The year 2020 has been challenging for the whole world due to the pandemic caused by Covid-19, which has reflected in all spheres of life. Of course, it has been challenging for education and in this case for University "Isa Boletini" in Mitrovica (UIBM). However, with the commitment of all structures, starting from the management, the Governing Council, the Senate, the deans, the Student Parliament, teachers, students and the administration, it was possible for the academic year to end successfully. Immediately after the start of the pandemic and isolation, all university links were mobilized, adapting to the new circumstances. Online learning was organized in all faculties without wasting time, taking the step of implementing the curriculum. In the meantime, in addition to the exams, the subjects of the online diploma also began to be defended, while many students showed themselves to be adept even in the exercise part in home conditions. Covid-19 definitely affected UIBM staff as well. We also had a fatal case of one of our teachers. However, we did not stop. It was a fight under difficult circumstances, not only to not give up, but also to be successful. In such a situation, the institutional re-accreditation process was also organized. Numerous meetings, consultations, preparation of all groups, preparation and adaptation of the documentation that regulates the work of UIBM, etc. , made our University re-accredited for a period of 3 years.

However, this success was an incredible experience for everyone. It was also very good news for all the young people who had the opportunity to be admitted to one of the 6 faculties of UIBM, in the competition for the admission of new students in the academic year 2020/21. The other good news was the approval of the UIBM Statute in the Assembly of Kosovo at the end of the year. The pandemic is not over, but hopes are high that humanity will already succeed thanks to scientific achievements, in this case the discovery of the vaccine, to defeat the mortar of the 21st century. Being successful as a University, of course it will be we are part of the achievements, starting from our society and beyond. The exceptional conditions for work in the best campus in Kosovo, with cabinets, laboratories, halls and very attractive programs for the labor market, are an additional motivation and a great opportunity for our students. We traveled together and we succeeded together. Together we are making UIBM a success story. Thank you!

RECTOR MUSAJ: PROFESSORS TO COOPERATE WITH STUDENTS FOR RESPECTING PROTECTIVE MEASURES

In harmony with the mission we have chosen to have as a profession, we can and must offer our social contribution to facilitate overcoming this situation as easily as possible. As teachers, we understand that the best way to help now is to be there for our students and their families, offer as much advice, safe practices, listen to our students and be together in overcoming this situation. Devote the first 5-10 minutes of each lecture to providing safe information, ask students to share instructions with each other or simply listen to them, motivate them to set priorities in these challenging days where maintaining health for themselves and their families and compliance with the instructions and decisions of the competent bodies should be a priority. Utilizing time studying turns this time into quality time. Please devote more time to students in your online meetings and also organize online conversations on issues of interest to them.

With respect,

Prof. Dr. Alush Musaj

Rector of University "Isa Boletini" in Mitrovica, prof. dr. Alush Musaj, accompanied by his colleagues, participated in the ceremony organized for the reception of first-year students. Students who have registered in the academic year 2020/21 were received in groups according to faculties throughout the day, in the Great Amphitheater, where the deans and leaders of the Student Councils were also present. Rector Musaj wished success to all students who have become part of UIBM. "This is an important moment for your future, it is the moment when you start a new journey that will definitely transform their lives. "According to him, UIBM, in addition to preparing for a specific profession, will also prepare them with skills and values for the labor market. "UIBM offers you all the professional and scientific capacity through the commitment of the academic staff, it offers you the best university campus in the country", emphasized Musaj. In the 2020/21 academic year, 987 candidates applied to UIBM in the first term, while 558 were accepted. The second deadline is expected to open soon for the places that have not been filled. Students from other years started lectures on October 1 and everything went well, despite the circumstances. Sufficient space at UIBM has enabled lectures to take place in facilities, respecting the conditions for protection from Covid-19.

Congratulations of the rector, Prof. Dr. Alush Musaj for the New Year 2021

31.12.2020

Dear studentsDear teachersDear employees of the administration of University "Isa Boletini" in MitrovicaWe are concluding a very challenging year as a result of the circumstances created by the Covid-19 pandemic, which has engulfed the entire globe. The world was challenged, but not surrendered. We did not give up either, adapting to the new conditions. We quickly organized ourselves as a University, to continue the learning process. I adapt to everyone, from students, teachers and administration. We walked together and successfully as if across the edge of the sword. In the meantime, with great dedication and energy, we prepared and successfully passed the institutional re-accreditation process. At the very end of the year, the other good news was the approval of the Statute of the University "Isa Boletini" in Mitrovica. Dear Sirs, with your dedication and commitment, we managed to turn a year that seemed lost for everyone into a success story. I thank each of you individually for your contribution. We are entering 2021 with hope and conviction that the world is winning the battle with the pandemic. We are entering with conviction to continue our successes as a University. In the end, allow me to wish you the New Year 2021, I wish you health and well-being together with your families.

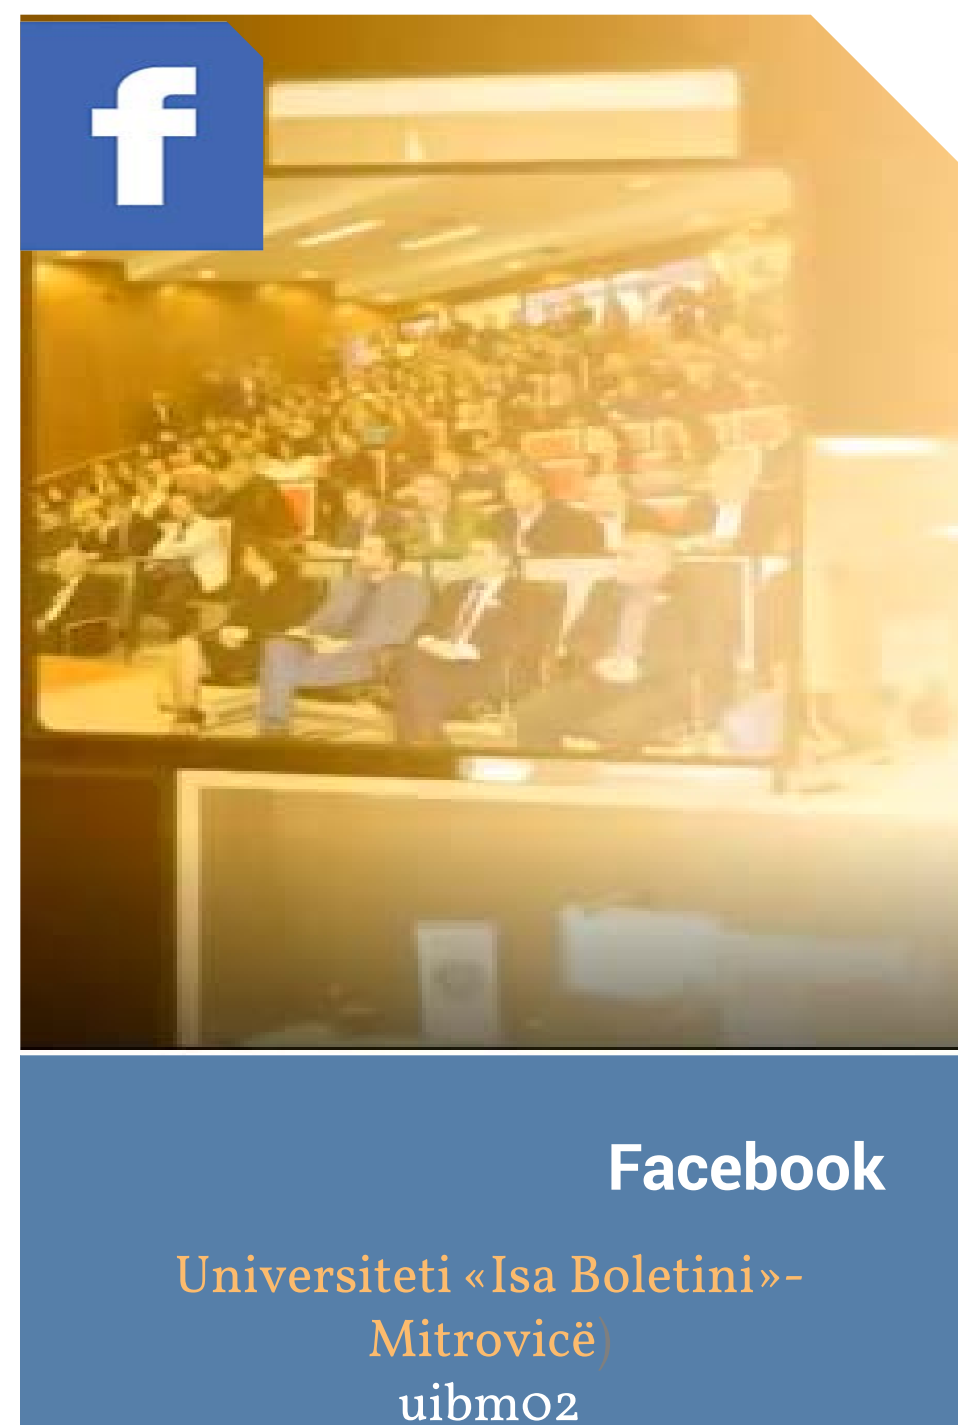

Cheers!

Rector,

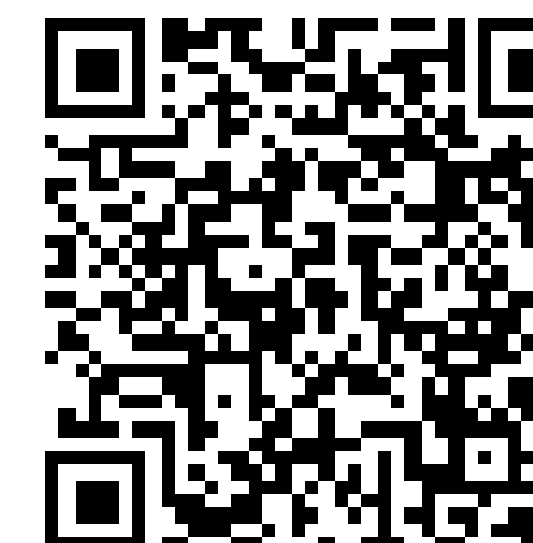

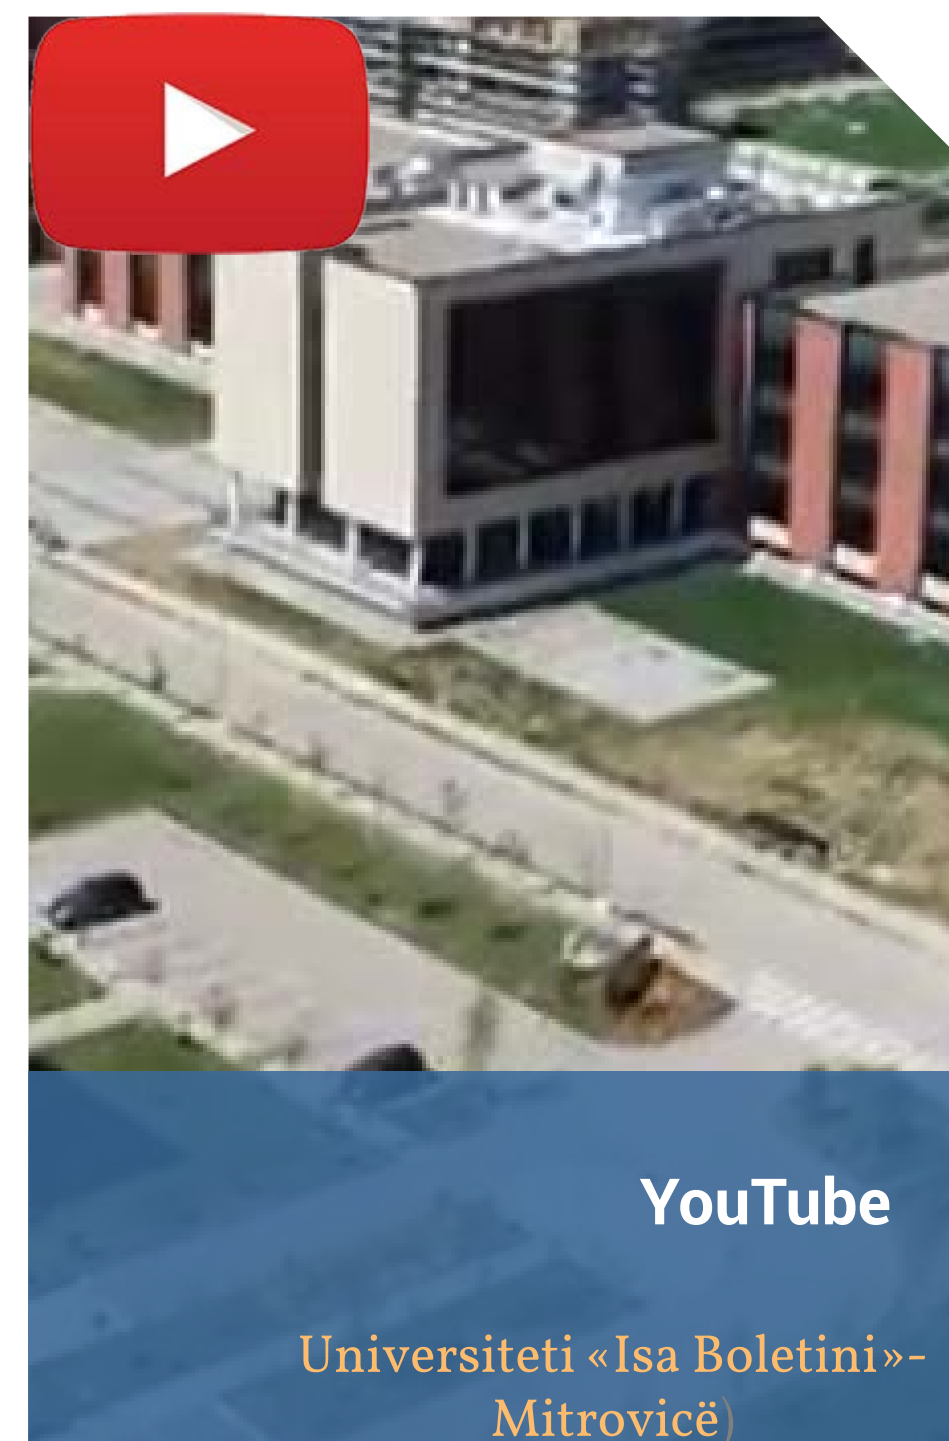

Prof. Dr. Alush Musaj
